HOLYROOD CASTLE, AND ARTHUR'S SEAT, EDINBURGH.

LL9158

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Holyrood Castle is one of the most interesting historical buildings in Scotland. Here James IV. lived, and here the beautiful but ill-fated Mary Queen of Scots had her residence. The origin of the building is ascribed to David I. Arthur's Seat is an eminence 822 feet high, from which a fine comprehensive view of the town is obtained.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

CTPA12.9

"EDINBURGH." [Regd.] Postcard 8503.
"OILETTE"
Raphael Tuck & Sons'
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.